About the conference

www.watersafety2022.org

The 2022 IWA Water Safety Conference will take place on June 22–24, 2022, in Narvik, Norway. The Conference is co-sponsored by the International Water Association (IWA) and World Health Organization (WHO) and jointly organized by the IWA Water Safety Planning Specialist Group (WSP SG), UiT the Arctic University of Norway, and the Chalmers University of Technology, Sweden

Following the successful conference of 2016, Palawan, Philippines, the conference will bring together more than 400 leading international experts from academia, industry, government, policymakers, authorities and others to actively share the state-of-the-art research and innovations solutions for water supply systems, which contribute to the implementation of water safety to the key stakeholders involved in providing safe drinking water.

During the three days of the conference, the program will include keynote speeches, oral presentations, poster sessions, and workshops. The conference will be accompanied by an exhibition in the same place as the conference hall. The closing day will give the unique opportunity to visit different facilities in the Arctic Circle.

We are pleased to invite your company to take part in the success of this event as a conference promoter or exhibitor!

As detailed hereafter, different packages have been tailored to offer a variety of conference promotion and exhibition options. Any questions regarding conference promotion and exhibition are kindly invited to contact the organizing committee of the conference. wspc2022@uit.no

We hope that you will respond positively to our invitation and become a partner of the IWA Water Safety Conference 2022, Narvik, Norway.

Sincerely

Prof. Bjørn R Sørensen
Chair of the Organising Committee
